

READ THE WORLD CHALLENGE!

2017 Adult Summer Reading Program
June 16-August 25

GUIDELINES:

- 1) Read a book with a connection to one specific country.
(The book may be set in that country, the author might live there, a major character may vacation there, etc.)
- 1) Fill in the title & author of the book next to the corresponding country on your list. Color in that country on your world map.
- 2) Keep going! Read books from at least 8 adjoining countries. (Ignore bodies of water! Island nations count too.) Each book may be used for 1 country.
- 3) All adult fiction, non-fiction, YA books and audiobooks count.
- 4) Bring your World Map to the Groton Public Library (by August 25) to choose one of these beautiful handcrafted gifts from Ten Thousand Villages! *May we add your colorful map to our library display?

EarthyTreasure Basket
(Bangladesh)

Lotus Tealight
(India)

Storm Journal
(Phillipines)

We create opportunities for artisans in developing countries to earn income by bringing their products and stories to our markets through long-term, fair trading relationships.

